

ICD and University of Phoenix FAQ

How much can ICD participants save on the cost of tuition?

ICD participants are eligible to save 10%* on the cost of tuition for any associate's, bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees, certificates and individual courses at University of Phoenix®.

When can ICD participants start taking advantage of the tuition savings?

Members can begin taking advantage of tuition savings immediately. Current University of Phoenix students must identify themselves as ICD participants through the University of Phoenix eCampus site to receive the tuition reduction. To identify themselves via eCampus, students will need to log in, select the "Account" tab, and click on the "Employer/Tribal Partnership Program" link. They should then select the name of their employer and answer all pertinent questions.

Can participants receive any college credit for prior training?

Many training courses have been evaluated by University of Phoenix and may qualify for college credit toward an associate's or bachelor's degree. Through Prior Learning Assessment (PLA), students may be eligible to receive up to 15 credits toward an associate's degree and up to 30 credits toward a bachelor's degree. The PLA process applies only to associate's or bachelor's degree candidates, and awarded credits are limited to elective or general education requirements. Please visit phoenix.edu/ICD to access the University of Phoenix Credit Recommendation Guide and see which courses may qualify for college credit. Learn more about PLA by calling 800.224.0690.

Does University of Phoenix accept transfer credits?

Yes, we accept transfer credits from regionally and select nationally accredited institutions of higher learning. However, certain transfer credits may not be applicable to your degree program.

In addition to online courses, does University of Phoenix also offer campus-based courses?

Yes. We offer a wide variety of online and campus-based programs although program availability and format vary by location. Please check with a University Enrollment Advisor. Students can visit phoenix.edu/ICD to browse our degree programs and search online or local campus programs.

Is University of Phoenix accredited?

Yes. University of Phoenix is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the North Central Association (ncahlc.org). For information about University of Phoenix accreditations and licensures, please visit phoenix.edu/about_us/accreditation.html.

How long will it take to complete a degree?

Students can complete their undergraduate degree in approximately four years or less, depending on the number of previously earned and applicable credits. Students can generally earn their graduate degree within 18-24 months. Your Enrollment Advisor will be able to offer a more accurate evaluation of the time needed to complete a degree.

Where can participants get answers to other detailed questions?

ICD participants who would like additional information should visit phoenix.edu/ICD or call 866.354.1800.

University of Phoenix®

*The University will provide a ten percent (10%) tuition reduction to any ICD member tuition invoice which is directly paid to the University by ICD. This 10% tuition reduction is not available to residents of the State of Florida.

While widely available, not all programs may be offered in both the online and on-campus formats. Please check with a University Enrollment Advisor.

The University's central administration is located at 4615 E. Elwood St., Phoenix, AZ 85040. Online Campus: 3157 E. Elwood St., Phoenix, AZ 85034. © 2011 University of Phoenix, Inc. All rights reserved.